On the Go in MCO is a lifestyle & informational blog about all that Central Florida has to offer! Our readers enjoy our unique perspectives & news about the Orlando area attractions & resorts at Walt Disney World, SeaWorld Orlando, & Universal Orlando Resorts. Our adventures also take us to Busch Gardens Tampa Bay, LEGOLAND Florida, & over to the Space Coast. You will also find the latest events at the Amway Center, local sports team coverage, as well as specials at local resorts, spas, & restaurants to help help plan your next visit to the Central Florida area like a 'local'.

In addition, we also work closely with brands to review products, host engaging giveaways, and provide useful post campaign analytics.
